Independence

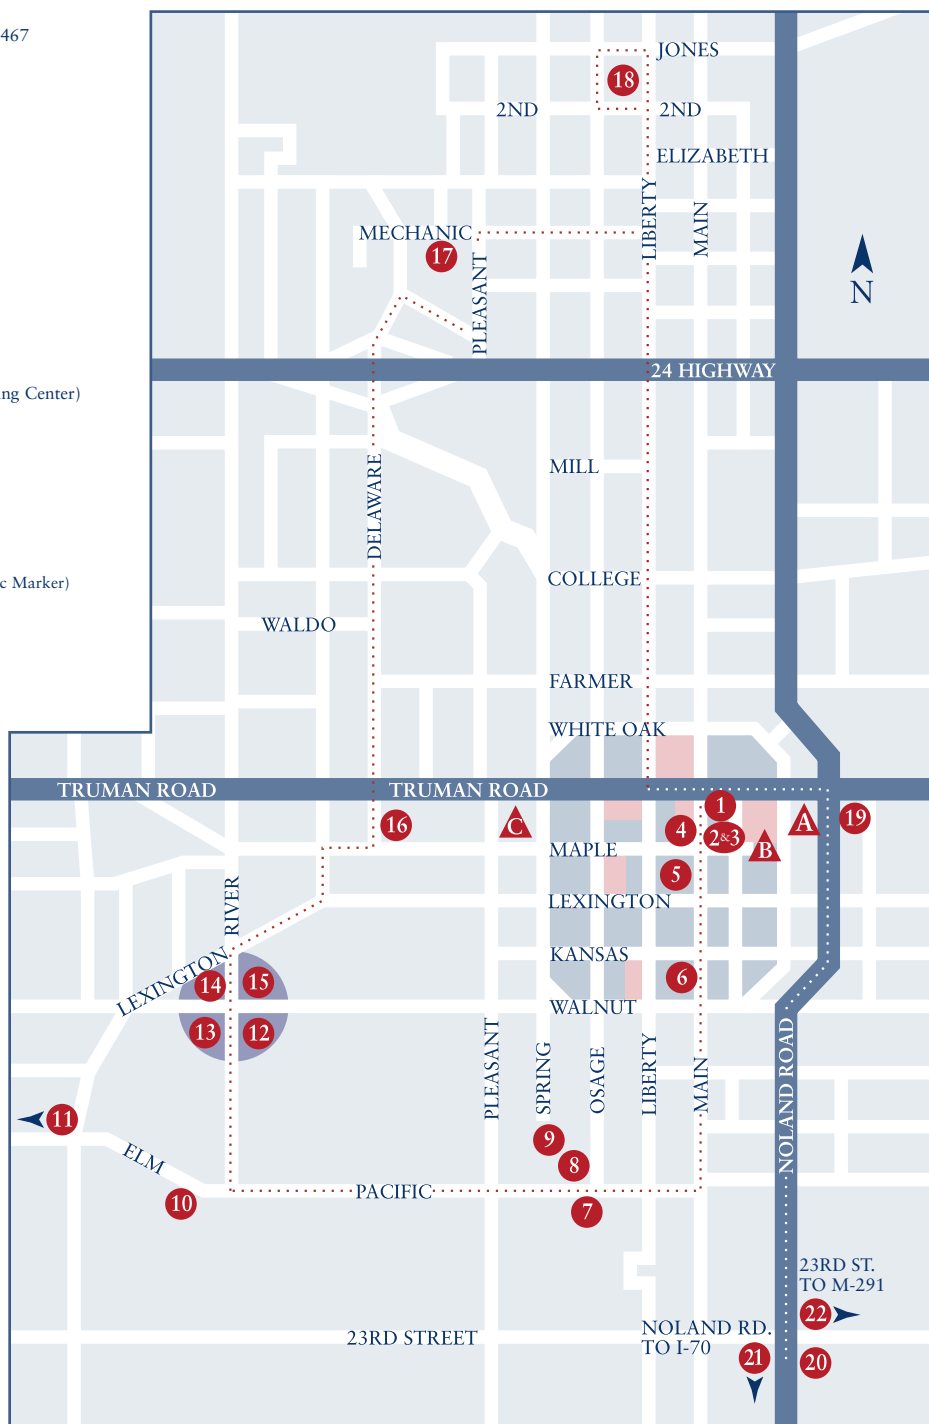

MISSOURI

An American Original

From presidents to pioneers, Independence is known as the place President Truman called home. East of Kansas City, it features 20 heritage attractions including the Truman Library and Home, Victorian mansions, an 1850s jail, a Frontier Trails Museum, an historic Square, covered wagon rides, and world renown religious sites. Enjoy great shopping, restaurants, golf, a family water park, Bass Pro complex, and numerous lodging choices. Open November, 2009: Independence Events Center, featuring concerts, events and CHL hockey.
